

all, every, each

both, either, neither, none

Meester Gijs

I love you more and more each and every day.

Happy Mother's Day!

ALL

EACH

ALL

We did all of the exercises at home.

They all wore a suit and tie.

We left it all on the dancefloor.

All I want is for her to like me.

I want it all!

ALL betekent alle/alles. Je gebruikt ALL als je spreekt over 100% van een groep, minimaal 3. Betreft het een groep van 2, dan zeg je BOTH.

Both my brothers were at the party. All of my friends were there as well.

2 broers

3 of meer vrienden

EVERY

Every classmate has a mobile phone.*

He plays football every Sunday.

Every day I meet new people.*

I deleted every text I received.

I take a break every two months.

EVERY betekent elke. Je gebruik EVERY voor zaken waar het om meer dan 2 gaat. Het betreft nu ook 100%, maar je hebt het wel over elke individueel, niet over de groep als één. Dus niet 1 groep, maar allemaal samen.

EACH

She has earrings in each ear.

Here's 10 pounds. That's 5 pounds each.

I have a lot of tattoos on each arm.

To each their own.

Each one should do at least one exercise.*

EACH betekent elke/beide. Deze gebruik je vaak voor twee, maar ook meer dan twee personen, dieren of dingen. Je benadrukt met each dat elk persoon, dier of ding op zichzelf staat.

Na ALL zet je het onderwerp en werkwoord in het meervoud

Na EVERY en EACH blijft het onderwerp/ werkwoord enkelvoud

All students are working on their project.

All my friends play Fifa.

Every student is working on their project. (3 or more students)

Every friend of mine plays Fifa. (3 or more friends)

Each student is working on their project. (2 or more students)
